

NSW FALLS PREVENTION NETWORK FORUM

Date: Friday 11th May 2018

Time: 9:00 am - 4:00 pm

Venue: Wesley Conference Centre, 220 Pitt St, Sydney

Focus: Nutrition, frailty and falls

Plenary Speakers

Pam Albany Guest Lecture: Professor Ian Cameron, The University of Sydney: Frailty and falls

Professor Cathie Sherrington, Head, Ageing and Physical Disability Program, Musculoskeletal Health Sydney, The University of Sydney: Falls prevention research update

Professor Susan Kurrle, Geriatrician, Hornsby Ku-rin-gai Hospital: Nutrition, sarcopenia & falls

Ms Lorraine Lovitt, Lead, NSW Falls Prevention Program, CEC: Leading Better Value Care - Falls in Hospital

Associate Professor Vasi Naganathan, Consultant Geriatrician, Concord Hospital, Older men & falls

Afternoon Concurrent Sessions

Showcasing best practice falls prevention strategies from acute/subacute care, community programs and residential aged care

Concluding Session: New Research Findings

Cost: $70 per person (includes arrival tea/coffee, morning tea and light lunch)

For further details and registrations:
<https://fallsnetwork.neura.edu.au> and click on Register Now

Registrations close: 4th May or when fully booked Enquiries to Esther Vance
e.vance@neura.edu.au
(02) 9399 1063

