

NSW FALLS PREVENTION NETWORK FORUM

Date: Friday 31 May 2019

Time: 9:00 am - 4:00 pm

Venue: Wesley Conference Centre, 220 Pitt St, Sydney

Theme: Active Ageing

Plenary Speakers

Pam Albany Guest Lecture: Professor Keith Hill, Faculty of Health Sciences, Curtin University, WA:

Balancing acts – Gaps and opportunities for falls prevention into the 2020's

Professor Stephen Lord, Senior Principal Research Fellow, Falls, Balance and Injury Research Centre (FBIRC) NeuRA: Falls prevention research update

A/Professor Kim Delbaere, Principal Research Scientist, FBIRC NeuRA: Standing Tall RCT results

Dr Morag Taylor, NHMRC- ARC Dementia Research Development Fellow, FBIRC, NeuRA: Falls prevention in dementia

Dr Jennie Hewitt, Clinical Education Coordinator, University Centre for Rural Health: Exercise in residential aged care

Afternoon Concurrent Workshop Sessions

Leading Better Value Care: Falls in Hospital - Facilitated by Ms Lorraine Lovitt, Lead, NSW Fall Prevention Program, Clinical Excellence Commission

Exercise Interventions - Facilitated by Dr Daina Sturnieks, Senior Research Scientist, FBIRC, NeuRA and Dr Jennie Hewitt, Clinical Education Coordinator, University Centre for Rural Health

Mental health and falls prevention - Facilitated by Ms Mandy Meehan, Team Leader, Ryde, Older People's Mental Health Service (OPMHS)

Cost: $70 per person (includes arrival tea/coffee, morning tea and light lunch)

For further details and registrations:
<https://fallsnetwork.neura.edu.au> and click on Register Now

Registrations close: 24th May or when fully booked
Enquiries to Esther Vance fallsnetwork@neura.edu.au
(02) 9399 1063

CLINICAL EXCELLENCE
COMMISSION

NeuRA

Discover. Conquer. Cure.